Residents Return From New York Fair, Tour of East, Canada

Shown above is the local group at the Bear Lake County Airport before boarding a chartered DC-3 for Salt Lake City July 13 to begin a 27-day tour of the United States and Canada under direction of Philip Hulme. From Salt Lake City they left on a bus, which, with eight other persons in addition to the 36 from Bear Lake county, passed through 25 states and Provinces of Quebec and Ontario, Canada.

They attended the World's Fair, saw Broadway shows in New York; visited many points of interest including LDS historical sites in New England and Middle West.

Mr. Hulme said members expressed themselves as having a wonderful trip. He commented that the older persons returned August 8 with more pep than on leaving. Marsha Ipsen was the youngest at 16, and Mrs. Corilla Peterson, the eldest at 80, crowded by several in the upper seventy bracket.

Bear Lake Stake (Idaho) Singing Mothers Present Cantata "Resurrection Morning," April 10, 1966

Front row, at the right, Ruby B. Dunford, chorister; seated at the organ, Merla N. Bee, organist.

Ivy K. Jensen, President, Bear Lake Stake Relief Society, reports: "Under the able leadership of our music department, this group of Singing Mothers, composed of singers from the nine wards in our stake, presented the cantata 'Resurrection Morning' by Gates, to an appreciative audience Easter night. Seven members of the stake board are among the group. We felt that by the participation of so many sisters and the deep spiritual message of the songs, that it was indeed a fitting and lovely occasion. Once each year our Singing Mothers furnish the music for stake quarterly conference, also special numbers for our monthly leadership meetings, funerals, and Relief Society functions. Much joy, happiness, and spiritual growth have come to the sisters through the presentation of these special programs."

Dear June,

I will treasure your note of appreciation and your desire to so generously reward me. But I have already been rewarded amply with the pleasure of enjoying the tour through your eyes, renewing feelings of love and devotion to my ancestors, and simply trying to be helpful to a dear cousin.

I have no other aim than to offer help to you in completing this project. (I hope earnestly that I haven't over-stepped any bounds in so doing.)

Thank you. I've enjoyed helping and wish my skills were as expert as my desire to help has been sincere. We are treasuring the carving LeGrande gave us. Thank you!

Love,

*Your cousin

Dear June & all:

scours me -

Your letter was so welcome & interesting. your ^{missionary} son is in a very responsible position & he's rubbing shoulders with the very elite. & How are the far away couple? my how thankful you can be for your wonderful family. & I know you are,

Hope your dear Mother's eye trouble is cleared up & all the family & loved ones, well & happy
Our love & best wishes to all: and again thanks for good letter. I just hope I'm not too late with this to do you any good. please

Dearest June & all:

Enclosed find pictures of my grandparents
Karl August Schmid & Anna Landert

let me know as there are still others -

Hope you had a safe & pleasant trip.
& I know you enjoyed & appreciated the great honor given your precious son.
All are well here, just busy.
as every one is every where.

Let's try to come to the Reunion, planning a nice program & good dinner. It

MY GRANDMOTHER

She never spoke an unkind word
To anyone that I have heard.
She always had a smile of cheer
For stranger, friend, or children dear.
She saw the good in those who failed
When all of us their shame had hailed.
She'd listen to our tales of woe,
And soon they'd melt away like snow.
She'd always fix an extra plate
At meal time, if someone was late,
Find extra quilts to make a bed
After the evening prayers were said.

She lived an honest noble life
Altho t'was filled with toil and strife.
She loved us all, and we loved her so,
But now the Lord has called her to go.
She's happy there with those she knew,
But I'm sure she misses Grandfather, too.
Her memory will inspire us,
To keep that sacred holy trust.
That we will meet her there some day,
And for sufficient strength, we pray.

Thelma Eschler Banks
